

"A company is as successful as are its employees."

The good interpersonal relations and the caring attitude towards each and every employee create a positive atmosphere which can easily be noticed and which is extremely important not only for our employees, but also for people who contact them.

Skopski Pazar is a company that highly appreciates the efforts of each employee to create a good working environment for themselves and for their colleagues and at the same time a good shopping atmosphere for its customers.

We provide each individual the possibility to realize their ambitions and fulfill their plans for professional success. Each employee that will regard the satisfaction of our customers to be their responsibility and show the will to increase their knowledge and skills has the opportunity to participate at numerous seminars, workshops and trainings which are organized on a regular basis.

We at Skopski Pazar take pride in our company's success which is based on mutual support and the care and good relations between all members of our big family. In this way together we create our mutual system everyday.
